NARRATIVE: The incident began at approximately 5:30 a.m. Friday (08/06/10) when deputies from Carson Sheriff's Station responded to the 20600 block of Raymond Avenue, unincorporated Carson, regarding a shots fired, possible assault with a deadly weapon call. The deputies received further information that the suspect came out of the residence, armed with a gun, and fired several rounds at passing vehicle. The suspect then retreated back inside the residence. When he refused to surrender to deputies a Sheriff's special weapons team and a crisis negotiations team responded to the location.

Six surrounding homes have been evacuated. No one was injured.

There is no more information available at this time.
